

Tony La Stella

"Italianized" Versions of your favorite songs from Opera & Sinatra to the Rolling Stones...Rock, Swing, Country, Sinatra & Opera performed with an Italian Twist for Concert & Dancing Audiences. Selections range from Pavarotti to The Who, Sinatra to the Eagles, Eros to the Stones...all presented "Italian Style" with virtuoso vocal and instrumental renditions of musical pop hits from the last 75 years.

TONY LA STELLA

"Superstar Talent...Magnificent Tenor Voice" (American Liberty News) Tony La Stella performs OPERA, SINATRA & ROCK" named TOP MALE VOCALIST IN THE USA (Hollywood Pillin Awards) with appearances in Night Clubs, Concerts, Television, Motion Pictures, Broadway Musicals & Opera throughout North America, South America, and Europe with over 100 recordings to his credit. He has performed with Luciano Pavarotti, Tony Bennett, Julie Andrews, Bernadette Peters and members of Heart, Yes, Queen, John Lennon Band, Beach Boys, Steppenwolf, and Iron Butterfly to name only a few. Critics state he has "...the ability to sing operatic AND pop material" (Las Vegas Sun). His many recordings include the remake of Mario Lanza's "Come Prima" with Alan White from "Yes," a new Operatic-Funk rendition of "Parla Piu Piano" (theme song for the "Godfather" films) and his original patriotic song "AMERICA BE STRONG" featured on CBS, NBC, and Fox-TV where reviewers said he "possesses a voice of great beauty, power, and warmth..." (The Times.) Among LA STELLA's motion pictures are the award winning film EVERY VOTE COUNTS and CONFESSIONS OF A HIT MAN, in which he co-stars and his music is featured. He also appears on screen and/or has recordings featured in episodes of KICKED OUT OF THE MOB & THE SOPRANO'S.

May 22nd, 2012